

Allowing part 15 devices to be come unlicensed transmitters at levels that will cause interference. So much is sending RF all through neighbourhoods. I can hear wireless phones blocks away (not cell) baby monitors wireless everything. So many of the manufacturers are not including components that would keep them from interfering with others and that would shield them from interference